From Sr. Jane:

“We have found the Messiah.”

Or was it: “WE HAVE FOUND THE MESSIAH!!!”

How long were they searching? Did they grow up learning to look forward to, even long for, the Messiah? When were they aware of moving from longing for to actively searching for, the Messiah? In your own life, when were you, or are you now, searching for the Messiah, in your life? What was your search like? Was it a sudden awareness of recognition, or a very gradual awareness that assures you that you have found the Messiah? Most importantly, what did you do about this wonderful recognition? God bless us all!

Fr. Rob and Sr. Jane thank you for your prayer, your cards and other gifts at Christmas. We pray that God fulfill your deepest desires for you and your families throughout the year 2021. God Bless You!
