October Count

This fall our Diocese will again involve itself in a common pastoral practice across the United States known as the "October Count." Each individual who attends the weekend Masses across our Diocese during the month of October will be counted in order to allow for a better pastoral planning for the benefit of our parishes and our Diocese.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Gospel today tells the story of a steward who mismanages his master's wealth and then acts shrewdly to secure his future. Though his motives are selfish, his actions show the value of generosity. Even a man driven by greed can see the importance of building relationships and gaining favor through kindness. This parable challenges us to think about our own use of resources. Everything we have comes from God, and we are stewards of His blessings. Do we use what we have wisely? Do we share generously, or do we hold on tightly, thinking only of ourselves? Jesus teaches that if even the greedy can recognize the benefits of generosity, His disciples should be even more willing to give. Our faith calls us to be kind and compassionate, not for personal gain, but because we know that God has given us everything. By sharing with others, we reflect God's love and fulfill His call to care for those around us.
