21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, we are reminded that God is the God of every nation. We are all invited to join in his feast. It is in this feast that we are healed and restored in God's love. God cares for us all. Jesus is God's love living among us. Jesus invites us to put our hope in God's mercy that is wide enough for us all.

Jesus gathers us all, the greatest and the least, into God's banquet of love. He challenges us to widen our understanding of Mercy, which embraces everyone whose hope is in God. When our living becomes an example of welcome, there is room for us all to enter God's kingdom.

Healed and restored, we gather and claim our place at God's table. The first as well as the last, the broken and blessed can place our lives in God's loving care. Jesus reminds us that God's feast is open to all. What must we do to enter this feast? What struggles must we endure? No matter what our challenges are, God is with us, leading us into his kingdom. Do not be afraid. Have courage. Come to the feast.

sloppy joes, chips, dessert and drink. Free will offering. Please join us.

Pope Leo XIV Appoints new Bishop of Jefferson City

Pope Leo XIV has appointed Fr. Ralph O'Donnell, 55, as the fifth Bishop of Jefferson City. The appointment was publicized Tuesday, August 19th in Washington, D.C., by Cardinal Christophe Pierre, Apostolic Nuncio to the United States.

Born in Omaha in 1969, Fr. O'Donnell was ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Omaha in 1997. He currently serves as Pastor of St. Margaret Mary Parish in Omaha.

His appointment comes approximately three months after the previous Bishop of Jefferson City, the Most Reverend Shawn McKnight, was installed as Archbishop of Kansas City in Kansas. Msgr. Robert A. Kurwicks was elected to serve as Diocesan Administrator, and continues in that role until the installation of the new bishop.

Statement from Fr. Ralph O'Donnell, Bishop-Elect of Jefferson City

"I'm grateful to the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV for this appointment. I look forward to coming to know and to serve the people of the Diocese of Jefferson City with joy. Let us pray for one another in the days ahead."

Bishop-Elect O'Donnell's ordination and installation is scheduled for October 28, 2025.

It would be great to get a group together from Ewing and Canton to attend the ordination. (time of the Mass hasn't been announced yet) If you would be interested in going, please call the office 573-209-3343.
